

INVITATION TO COLLEAGUES

INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON DIGITAL PRESERVATION FORUM

9am – 5pm, Monday, 2 February 2009

National Library of New Zealand Auditorium
Cnr Molesworth & Aitken Streets
Wellington

A Sun Centre of Excellence for Digital Preservation in Libraries, the National Library of New Zealand is internationally recognised for its enviable roster of digital preservation projects and the development of pioneering digital library tools.

As part of the official launch of the National Digital Heritage Archive (NDHA), the National Library of New Zealand will host a one-day forum 'International Perspectives on Digital Preservation'.

Speakers include representatives from the NDHA International Peer Review Group; the National Library of Australia, Archives New Zealand and the National Library New Zealand's NDHA team.

The forum is being offered at no cost to attendees. Registration is essential as space is limited.

To attend the forum, please register to NDHA@natlib.govt.nz advising your;
